

New Prince of Wales Information

- New Prince of Wales Branch is now open.
- The new Branch is attached to the south side of the Core Ritchie Neighbourhood Centre (445-14th Avenue) - only two blocks east of the old branch.
- "Restoring Our Branches" is one of the key priorities outlined in the Library's Strategic Plan.
- This is RPL's first new Branch since 1995.
- We will be holding a formal grand opening event in October.
- The size of the new Branch is around 3,400 square feet on one level - about three times larger than the current branch size.
- Total cost for the building is just over $1.5 million.
- This project was developed in cooperation with the City of Regina.
- Library Board created the Library Home Lottery five years ago, to raise funds for Branch Capital improvement projects.

- This Branch features 2 self-check machines, with the ability to pay fines at the station via pin-pad.
- There is a 24 hour bookdrop available at this Branch, which is reachable from curbside.
- Currently the collection has just under 10,000 items with an additional 1,500 being added in a short order.
